

Local Newspapers

Today's News

- Current copies of the Winnipeg Free Press and Winnipeg Sun are available at all Winnipeg Public Library branches.
- The database Canadian Major Dailies provides access to current Winnipeg Free Press articles (in-library use only).
- Library branches may also have current editions of Winnipeg community papers such as The Lance, The Times, etc.

Newspaper archives

- Access the complete Winnipeg Free Press archive and past editions of many Manitoba newspapers through our subscription to Newspaper Archive®. Visit winnipeg.ca/library and use your valid Winnipeg Public Library card to log-in.
- Millennium Library (251 Donald Street) has past editions of Winnipeg newspapers in both print and microfilm. Content on microfilm can be scanned and saved to your own USB drive.

Clippings

- Browse local newspaper clippings files about Winnipeg and Manitoba topics.
- Files are available to use at the Millennium Library – Local History Room. Copy, photographed or scan-to-email.

Other sources

Newspaper archives may also be found in the digital collections of other organizations: for example, all editions of the Winnipeg Tribune (1890-1980) are freely available on the University of Manitoba Archives and Special Collections website. Contact us for help with searching.
